

Basic Principles of Leadership

1. Provide vision and direction.
2. Lead by example.
3. Help others succeed.
4. Increase your versatility.
5. Be visible, approachable, and available.
6. Replace employee dependence with self-confidence, pride and accountability.
7. Make your expectations clear.
8. Insure that each person has the information and tools to do their job.
9. Provide timely feedback.
10. Reward after great performance, not in hope of good performance.

©2001, John T. Shoup, JTS Associates, Inc.